

LATETET

65%

of aid recipients stated that their financial situation has deteriorated over the past year

94.2%

of our partner NGOs didn't receive any governmental assistance, despite growing needs

63.7%

of aid recipients report low personal resilience, over twice the rate observed in the general population

28.7%

of the Israeli population lives in poverty

$1,530

is the minimum cost of living per individual (and $3,890 per household), an increase of 6.5% and 6.9%, respectively compared to last year

10.1%

of families in Israel live in severe nutritional insecurity

44.6%

of aid recipients stated that the war significantly impacted their children's academic performance, 3.2 times more than the general population

81.7%

of elderly aid recipients live in poverty

CLICK TO READ THE FULL REPORT \(HEBREW\) >